

Instructions for Authors and Editorial Policy

Camera Separatoria is a scholarly and peer-reviewed journal (print and online) published 2 times per year which was founded in 2009. It is a continuation of the journal Postępy Chromatografii (Progress in Chromatography) devoted to the science, technique and technology of separation. It provides a medium for the publication of theoretical and experimental studies and reviews related to separation science: chromatography, electrophoresis, mass spectrometry, extraction, electroseparation etc.

Camera Separatoria publishes original (not published previously and are not currently under consideration by another journal except in the form of an abstract or as part of a published lecture, review, or thesis) and review papers from all branches of separation science, technique and technology. Additionally letters to the editor; expert opinions; information on instrumentation, book reviews and information about conferences as well as advertisements are also published. The journal welcomes contributions which promote the exchange of ideas and rational discourse between practicing educators and material researchers all over the world.

The manuscript can be submitted to any editor, together with the cover letter, using e-mail. No limitation of the articles lengths are provided. The manuscript should be original, has not been published previously and should not be currently being considered by another journal.

Manuscript should be prepared using MS-Word editor in the .doc/.docx format. Detailed rules are presented on <http://www.uph.edu.pl/index.php/druki-firmowe/dokumenty-wydawnictwa-ap.html>. It should be typed in single-spaced lines using Arial 10p. font with the overall page numbering (at the center of bottom margins). Tables (Arabic numeration, title in Polish and English, Arial 10p.), figures and figure captions (Arabic numeration, in Polish and English, Arial 9p.) and references can be placed directly to the text. The main heading appears in the following order:

- list of Authors by first, middle names, surname (capital letters); the Corresponding Author's name should be accompanied by an asterisk (*); if Authors are from more than one affiliation, use superscript numbers to link the Authors' names and their affiliations,
- list of affiliations and complete mailing addresses of the authors (including zip code, city, street, and number; for universities, the faculty or department should be given),
- the title (should not exceed 20 words) of the article in Polish as well as English, (in all capital letters, Arial 12p.),
- if there is more than one affiliation, use asterisks to indicate the institute with which each author is affiliated, as it is presented below:

Jan K. KOWALSKI, Karol ROBERT***

1st Podlasie's Chromatographic Meeting

Body text...

In the subsequent text, the following parts are desirable: abstract (in Polish and English, Arial 9p.), keywords (about five, in Polish and English, Arial 9p.), introduction (review of literature and formulation the aim of the paper), experimental (reagents, apparatus, protocols, data analysis), results and discussion, conclusions, acknowledgments and literature. The SI units and nomenclature recommended by IUPAC should be used. References should be typed in the forms:

1. J.K. Kowalski, K. Robert, Research of separation..., Analytical Chemistry 44 (2000) 666.
2. A. Adzik, in Fundamentals of Separation Science, K. Karol, ed., PTNoR, Reymontówka 2000.
3. Polish standard PN – EN ISO 17993, text...
4. S. Separator, Proceedings of 2nd Podlaskia's Chromatographic Meeting, Kotuń-Chlewiska, Sep. 12-18, 1987.

in a list at the end of article and numbered in the order of appearance. Citation in the text should be denoted by number in square brackets.

One of the Editor first evaluates the manuscript. Exceptionally it can be accepted at this stage. Those rejected at this stage are passed on to 2 experts for review. Acceptance for publication is subject to positive recommendation from the referees. The referees remains anonymous throughout the process. Reviewers are not supposed to contact the authors or to otherwise make their identity known. The referees are asked to evaluate the manuscript according to the below rules within 3 weeks. Authors have three months to correct the article after the reviewing process. After this time, the returned article is considered as newly received. The authors receive the electronic version of their paper and the proper volume of Camera Separatoria free of charge.

Advertisements may be published according to the prescribed rates.

Ethical guidelines

It is crucial to agree upon standards of expected ethical behavior for all involved in the act of publishing: author, editor, reviewer, publisher and society. Editors and reviewer are committed to ensuring that advertising, reprint or other commercial revenue has no impact or influence on editorial decisions. They must not disclose any information about a submitted manuscript to anyone other than the corresponding author. The unpublished materials disclosed in a submitted manuscript must not be used in an editor's/referee's own research without the express written consent of the author. The reproduction or adaptation of previously published tables, figures, illustrations, or extensive quotations from other sources must obtain appropriate written permission.
